DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

- 1. The applicant has elected group I without traverse. The examiner incorrectly listed claims in group 1 and should have included additional claims in this group. As the examiner is not further restricting the claims, no response is required.
- 2. Group I now includes the following claims: 1-15, 18-36, and 39-41. Additional claims include composition claims 21-35.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000.

Application/Control Number: 10/826,811

Art Unit: 1751

Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

- 4. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brown et al (US 20070040147 A1).
- 5. Brown teaches azeotropic compositions containing difluoroethane and secondary ingredients for use as a refrigerant.
- 6. Brown teaches the inclusion of various ingredients including trifluoroiodomethane as a flame retardant (see claim 14). Brown further teaches the inclusion of additives such as lubricants and stabilizers (see paragraph 34).
- 7. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Flohr et al (US 20060202154 A1)
- 8. Flohr teaches azeotropic composition containing carbon dioxide and additional fluoro compounds including the claimed 1,1-difluoroethane and trifluoroiodomethane (see claim 2).
- 9. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Waldrop et al (US 20050145820).
- 10. Waldrop teaches azeotropic compositions containing 1,1-difluoroethane blended with trifluoroiodomethane in ranges of percentages overlapping those of the applicant's claims (see paragraph 33).

Application/Control Number: 10/826,811

Art Unit: 1751

- 11. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nimitz (US 7,083,742).
- 12. Nimitz teaches compositions containing fluoroiodocarbons blended with hydrocarbons. Nimitz identifies trifluoroiodomethane as a preferred fluoroiodocarbon (see table 3).
- 13. Nimitz further identifies preferred additives to be mixed with the fluoroiodocarbon includes 1,1-difluoroethane as a preffered hydrofluorocarbon (see table 4).
- 14. In table 5, Nimitz exemplifies an azeotrope containing the required trifluoroiodomethane and difluoroethane (see example 12).
- 15. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nimitz (US 6,270,689).
- 16. Nimitz teaches azeotropic compositions containing 25-50% difluoroethane and 25-45% trifluoroiodomethane (see abstract).
- 17. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by MATSUSHITA DENKI SANGYO KK [MATU] (JP11199863)
- 18. '863 teaches in column 4 a variety of compositions containing the HFC-152a in combination with various amounts of CF3I including ranges defined by applicant.
- 19. Claims 1, 4-15, 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yoshida et al (JP 09059612A)

Application/Control Number: 10/826,811

Art Unit: 1751

20. Yoshida teaches compositions containing various amounts of R152a, R32 and the trifluoroiodomethane including ranges overlapping those of applicant's.

Allowable Subject Matter

21. Claims 21-36 as well as the restricted method claims depending therefrom (claims 37 and 38) are allowed. Although the prior art teaches the R152a and the CF3I in combination, the addition of the HFO-1234 was not found in the prior art. Nor would it have been obvious to choose this specific fluorinated compound from the millions of possible fluorinated compounds possible. As such these claims are found to be allowable.
